To stay up-to-date, parents can sign up for LCPS's parent information update (PIU) list or regularly check their child's LCPS website. Error-Prone Schedule Management Schedule management is another area where potential mistakes can occur. LCPS requires students to adhere to strict attendance policies, including excused and unexcused absences. In cases where a student is expected to be absent due to a scheduled event, such as a family gathering or a sports tournament, notification to the school is essential. Additionally, students participating in extracurricular activities like sports, clubs, or music programs must keep track of game and performance schedules, practices, and deadlines for permission slips, medical forms, and other paperwork. This can be overwhelming, and even a minor oversight can lead to missed opportunities or consequences.
