Every student at UC Davis starts with the same question: when does the clock tick, and what milestones lie ahead? Knowing the key dates from registration to graduation not only streamlines the academic journey but also saves you from last-minute scrambling and missed deadlines. Registration usually opens a couple of weeks before the fall semester begins. Students are asked to confirm enrollment, choose courses, and settle tuition within this window. If you delay, you risk being dropped from classes or missing out on limited-capacity courses. Overlooking Core Requirements: Many new students assume that once they register, all core classes are automatically secured. Verify that your major's essential courses are on your schedule—otherwise you'll have to wait until the next semester. Ignoring
